

HYPER-SEXUALIZATION OF CHILDREN

IN THE MEDIA

Approximately 2 million children are exploited every year in the global commercial sex trade*

JOIN US as Cordelia Anderson presents her keynote address Hyper-sexualization of Children in the Media – Why We Should Care and What We Can Do About It
Local victims' advocate and survivor Savannah Sanders shares her experiences.

Cordelia Anderson has conducted over 2,200 presentations nationally and internationally on topics including: prevention of child sexual abuse/exploitation, impact of pornography, normalization of sexual harm, promotion of sexual health, bullying/cyber-bullying, impact of pornography, restorative justice, compassion fatigue and bringing activism into our work. She's been the lead expert consultant on two statewide mass media efforts: Project Abuse (which won an Emmy in 1984) and You're the One Who Can Make the Peace. She's on the Board of the National Center for Missing & Exploited Children, and is the founder and immediate past president of the National Coalition for the Prevention of Child Sexual Abuse & Exploitation.

As a survivor of devastating hardships in her youth, Savannah Sanders is now living a full life as a victim's advocate, wife, and mother of four beautiful, bright children. Savannah is pursuing a Masters in Social Work with a Minor in Women and Gender Studies. Savannah has faced and overcome hardships and abuses, such as childhood rape, child sex slavery, homelessness as a teen, and severe drug addiction. Stepping out with new-found healing, courage, and strength, Savannah is sharing her story with a passion to educate, mentor and empower people who have been traumatized from the dehumanizing acts of sexual abuse. Savannah's compelling story of abuse and recovery is a source of inspiration and education to all who have the privilege of hearing her speak.
