Forming and Sustaining Relationships with Children and Families

8:30 – 10:30 AM

This workshop will demonstrate how caregiver's behaviors and feelings help young children feel secure and safe. Participants will also explore how to build relationships with families and how to support the parent-child relationships

Essential Positive Messages

11:00 AM – 1:00 PM

A positive adult-child relationship built on trust, understanding, and caring will foster children's cooperation and motivation and increase their positive outcomes at school. Participants will take a look at the messages they are sending and learn ways to ensure these messages are received in a positive way.
