

General Election 2014

We are in the midst of an election season and there are Federal, State and Local races and propositions that will affect all of us. The results of these elections will impact everything from National policy to statewide education funding and even the very roads we drive on. It is important that we as the business community ensure that we make our voices heard and vote.

At the Greater Flagstaff Chamber of Commerce, we are educating our members on the importance of registering to vote and participating in the elections. We also discuss issues that are important to our more than 1,100 businesses and organizations and meet with candidates to discuss our priorities. Join the Chamber and our political action committee BizPAC in voting for a better economic future for Flagstaff and Arizona.

You are invited to attend and learn more about your candidates at the Flagstaff Mayoral & City Council Forum presented by the Greater Flagstaff Chamber of Commerce, Northern Arizona Association of Realtors, Findlay Automotive Group, and Northern Arizona Building Association Monday, October 6, 2014 at Little America Hotel. Doors open at 5:30, event starts at 6pm. Pay attention to how candidates say they will solve a problem. Is it realistic? Does it model the leadership style you believe to be best for our community?

Arizona's 1st Congressional District election for the US House of Representatives is considered one of the most competitive in the country this cycle. Incumbent Ann Kirkpatrick (D) is seeking reelection against Andy Tobin (R). The district includes Apache, Coconino, Navajo, Greenlee, Graham, Gila, Pinal, and Pima counties. It is one of the largest and most diverse districts in the country and has a slight Republican lean according to Fairvote and Cook's PVI.
