Registration is now open for the 2nd Annual Arizona Healthy Communities Conference. This conference is the premier training and networking event for community development practitioners, planning and health professionals, affordable housing developers, non-profits, government and elected officials from all regions of Arizona.

At this conference, you will discover how to:

- Develop healthy housing and walkable communities
- Connect healthy community planning with resources
- Invest in healthy communities
- Integrate healthy food policy and financing

Join us for a stimulating exploration into the intersection of health and community development featuring keynote speakers:

John Cook, Ph D. and M.A.Ed., Research Scientist and Principal Investigator, Children's HealthWatch

Associate Professor of Pediatrics, Boston University School of Medicine

Colby Dailey, Managing Director, Build Healthy Places Network

Serena Unrein, Director, Arizona Partnership for Healthy Communities
