9:30 a.m. - 3:30 p.m.

Camp Colton

A day camp for children to learn about the grief process through activities and share their experiences with each other in a safe, supportive atmosphere.

The camp is for children ages 6-12, who have experienced the death of a friend or family member. The camp is offered at no cost to participants.

Some of the activities included will be:

- Crafting a Memory Box
- Exploring the emotions of grief
 - A family exercise
 - And much more!
