PARENTS

This is an educational program. Your teen will be placed in a business atmosphere and will need to display maturity and a good attitude. Transportation will not be provided. This means punctuality and attendance will be a shared responsibility between you and your teen. Applications will be reviewed and eligible teens will be contacted for an interview. Selected teens will be notified the last week of May for an interview. The interview process is highly competitive and not all applicants will be accepted.

What is FYI?

Flagstaff Youth Investment Is a 5 week program running from June 20th through July 22nd. Participants will be assigned to varying departments within the city and will work closely with their FYI mentor to create and maintain a volunteer schedule no less than 10 hours per week, for a total of 40 hours to graduate. Participants will gain valuable volunteer and leadership experience through on-the-job training during the program. This is a voluntary program and will not be a paid position, but can be used for community service or volunteer hours in addition to building up your resume!
