

You can make a difference in the life of a child.

Find out how.

Coffee with a CASA

You are invited to join us for a casual conversation about the Court Appointed Special Advocates (CASA) Program. Come learn how you can have a lifelong impact on a child in foster care in Coconino County. CASA volunteers are everyday people, appointed by a judge to review a case of abuse or neglect. Volunteers meet with the children involved in the case and become an integral part of the court team, ultimately reporting back to the judge with vital information about the case.

When: Wednesday, May 17, 2017      9:30 am - 11:00 am

Where: White Dove Coffee      2211 E. 7th Ave, Flagstaff, 86004

Let us buy you a cup of coffee
and a pastry and tell you about CASA volunteer work.

Why: Children with a CASA volunteer assigned to them spend less time in foster care and receive more targeted services. More volunteers are needed to serve the amount of children in foster care in Coconino County.
