Mobile Service Days offered in County Communities

FLAGSTAFF, Ariz. - The Coconino County Assessor, Treasurer and Recorder's offices will continue Mobile Service Days in 2018. Each office will deliver the functionality and services regularly provided directly to communities throughout the County.

Staff from each office will be available to meet with citizens, provide general services and answer questions. People can apply for property tax exemption programs, pay a tax bill, record documents and register to vote.

"We received a lot of positive responses from citizens who participated in our Mobile Service Days last year," said Assessor Armando Ruiz. "People appreciated that we were bringing county services closer to them and we are excited to continue working in our communities across the County again in 2018."
