Seminar 9am - 11am

Workshop 11:30am - 12:30pm

Join us as Hasan shares his inspirational journey from his childhood filled with love but also many challenges navigating education, justice, and social service systems. Hasan will also share the simple strategies his personal champions employed to help him complete the "JD shuffle" and go from Hasan Davis Juvenile Delinquent to Hasan Davis Juris Doctor.

This presentation and workshop is free and open to all parents, family members, caregivers, professionals and community members impacting kids.

Presentation Objectives:

- A better understanding of the cradle to prison pipeline
- Building the economic argument for investing more federal dollars in early childhood vs. Justice/Corrections programming
- A framework for exploring the impact of Social Emotional engagement strategies to mitigate the impact of early childhood trauma (and Drama) on Early Brain Development
- The impact that one caring adult can have on the lifelong trajectory of a child
- Pages from a "Hope Dealer Handbook" inspirational lessons from Hasan's Hope Dealers that now guide his own work

Workshop Objectives:

- Experience and learn the process and basic structure of Bio Poem by crafting their own.
- After completing your own Bio Poem we will explore how variations of this tool can be employed to engage pre-writing children and as an exercise with parents/guardians.
- Review and reflect on the Bio Poem exercise as an active assessment instrumented
- Explore how the Bio Poem process can be used to support educational planning, identify strengths and communicate the needs of children.
